ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Alice Juan, 4 years-old, loses her stuffy on Easter day. Her world crumples, and her mom comforts her by saying: «Don't worry, he went with the Easter bunny.» From then on, Alice chooses to dream, and sublimate reality through imagination. Cartoons fill her childhood, and she wishes to make others dream as well, and bring others joy through drawings and storytelling.

This desire is amplified throughout the years. After 7 moves and 10 school changes, Alice finally settles in 2018. After completing her bachelor's degree in science that year, she begins her studies at Ateliers de Sèvres. She completes the preparatory classes and is admitted in 2019 to the Ateliers Supérieurs d'Animation. In order to obtain her diploma, she works on the short animated film Ouléou ? as part of her capstone project in her third year. This short is dedicated to her stuffy, and to those who believed in her dreams.
